

Draft Horse Show Rules and Regulations

All Entries, Exhibitors and participants are Subject to these Rules and Regulations.

This is a draft or heavy horse event with hitch classes, Teamster events and open classes. The hitch classes are open to draft horse breeds including Belgians, Clydesdales, Percherons, Shires, Suffolks, Hafflingers, Mules, Light horses, Ponies and grade horses of these breeds. Donkeys, Mules and light breeds of driving horses will be allowed to enter. All Classes including junior driving classes will allow an adult to ride with a junior driver for safety.

1. Any person violating these rules and regulations can be disqualified. The Show committee will settle all discrepancies.
2. All Entries, Exhibitors, crew and participants liable to occasional accidents, injury or damage to persons coming into contact therewith, shall guard their equines and equipment in such a way as to protect other attendees including the public. Any horses(s) Ponie(s) Donkey(s) or Mules(s) out of control or seemingly dangerous, may be asked to leave the arena or the grounds. Any equines involved in an accident at previous shows here or otherwise and deemed unsafe by the committee, may be asked to leave and shall do so when asked. Owners of unsafe animals identified by the committee will be subject to paying for damages caused by the accident and all related legal fees.
3. All Entries, Exhibitors, crew and participants do so at their own risk and release the Box Elder County Fair, the show committee and volunteers, Box Elder County and it's employees from all liability of any kind; or loss of property, life, demands, costs, charges and expenses that may be incurred by reason of any accidents, omissions, conducts or fault of any kind. Participants should have their own insurance to cover any loss as stated above, as a result of any accident, illness or injury and insurance to cover injury caused by you, your animals, crew or equipment.
4. The Fair Board President of the Box Elder County Fair shall have general supervision of the grounds, the entire exhibition as well as control of the show rules and regulations with support of the show committee. Should there be any dispute or misunderstanding which none of the Rules and Regulations govern, the show committee, shall have the final and absolute right to alter, interpret, apply or change these rules and regulations as may become necessary.
5. Any disputes with participants, officials or any other individuals will be handled by the Show Committee, without public display. Anyone creating an unfavorable scene may be asked to leave the fairgrounds. Any exhibitor who may desire to enter a protest must enter such protest in writing prior to the close of the show.
6. Exhibitors may keep their animals in the stalls provided at the fairgrounds. Bedding will be provided. Make arrangements with the show committee in advance if you would like to purchase hay. You may wish to bring your own partitions.
7. Entries accepted on a first come first serve basis until filled.
8. Each entry must wear the correct number in an easily visible place while participating. Numbers may be attached to person, cart or wagon.
9. Dogs shall be kept on leashes at all times while on the fairgrounds. No dogs are allowed in the arena, grandstand, equine loading and unloading areas unless approved by the committee.
10. No horse, pony, donkey or mule is to be shown if it has been given any forbidden substance defined as any controlled substance scheduled by the DEA. This includes stimulants, depressants, and all anabolic steroids. The respective committee reserves the right to test any horse or mule for the presence of forbidden substances.

For more information contact Randy Grover 435 881 4767 or other committee members listed in the fairbook.